

Climate and Sustainability News

from CLIMA – Centre for Climate Change Law and Governance

Unveiling CLIMA: University of Copenhagen's new Centre for Climate Change Law and Governance

We are thrilled to announce the establishment of UCPH's new research Centre for Climate Change Law and Governance (CLIMA). Building upon the legacy of CILG, CLIMA is committed to pioneering research and education for the green transition.

Follow us on our social media and be part of our growing CLIMA community. Together, let's turn the tide and shape a sustainable future!

If you have any questions or thoughts, you can reach out to our Head of Center: beatriz.martinez.romera@jur.ku.dk.

Research

Routledge Studies in Human Rights

HUMAN RIGHTS AND CLIMATE CHANGE

THE LAW ON LOSS AND DAMAGE

Linnéa Nordlander

New Book: Human Rights and Climate Change – The Law on Loss and Damage

Linnéa Nordlander has published a book, which explores the intersection of international climate change law and human rights law concerning loss and damage from climate change.

MAY–JUNE 2023

THE JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL MARITIME LAW

VOLUME 29 ISSUE 3 ISSN 1478-8586

New Article: The Actors of Green Ship Finance: all Hands on Deck and Some More

Viktor Weber's new article in the Journal of International Maritime Law is out! The paper examines financing challenges for ship conversions and new-builds, and proposes solutions to these.

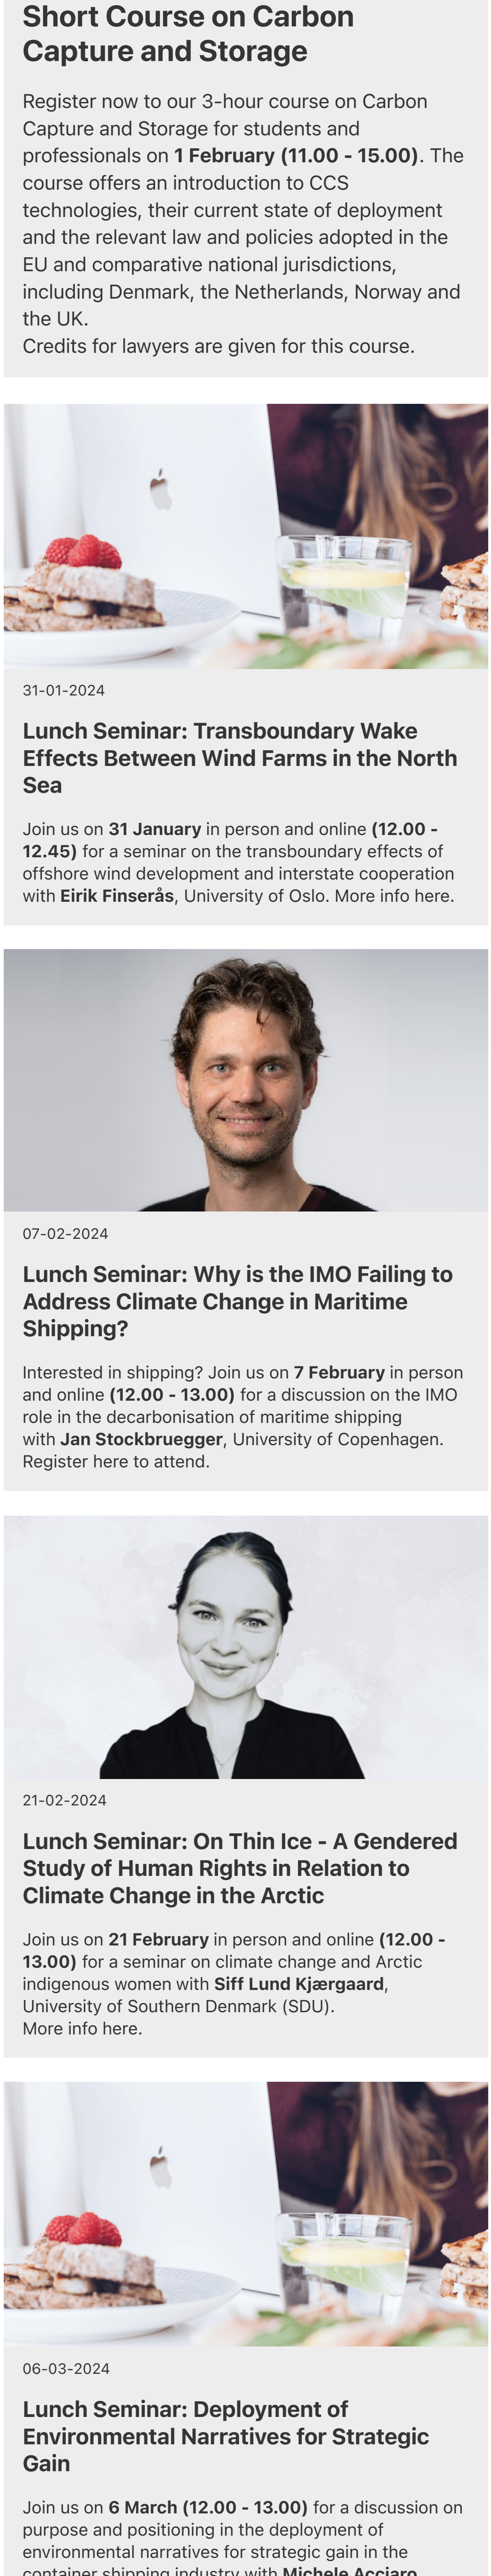

VILLARS FRAMEWORK FOR A SUSTAINABLE GLOBAL TRADE SYSTEM

SUPPLY NEWS 4 2023

CLIMA Contributes to the Villars Framework for Sustainable Global Trade

The Villars Framework for a Sustainable Global Trade System proposes a WTO reform agenda to better align the trading system with sustainability.

CLIMA researchers contributed on the topics of border carbon adjustment, shipping and the blue economy. See the report here.

Marie Curie Project INTERFOR Comes to an End

The project has made a key contribution to understanding the opportunities and pitfalls of international law concerning forest protection. Through different publications, Justine Bendel provided an analysis of recent developments in the EU concerning litigation of LULUCF activities, and insights related to forest on: environmental impact assessment, rights-based climate litigation, and common concern of humankind. More info here.

Events

01-02-2024

Short Course on Carbon Capture and Storage

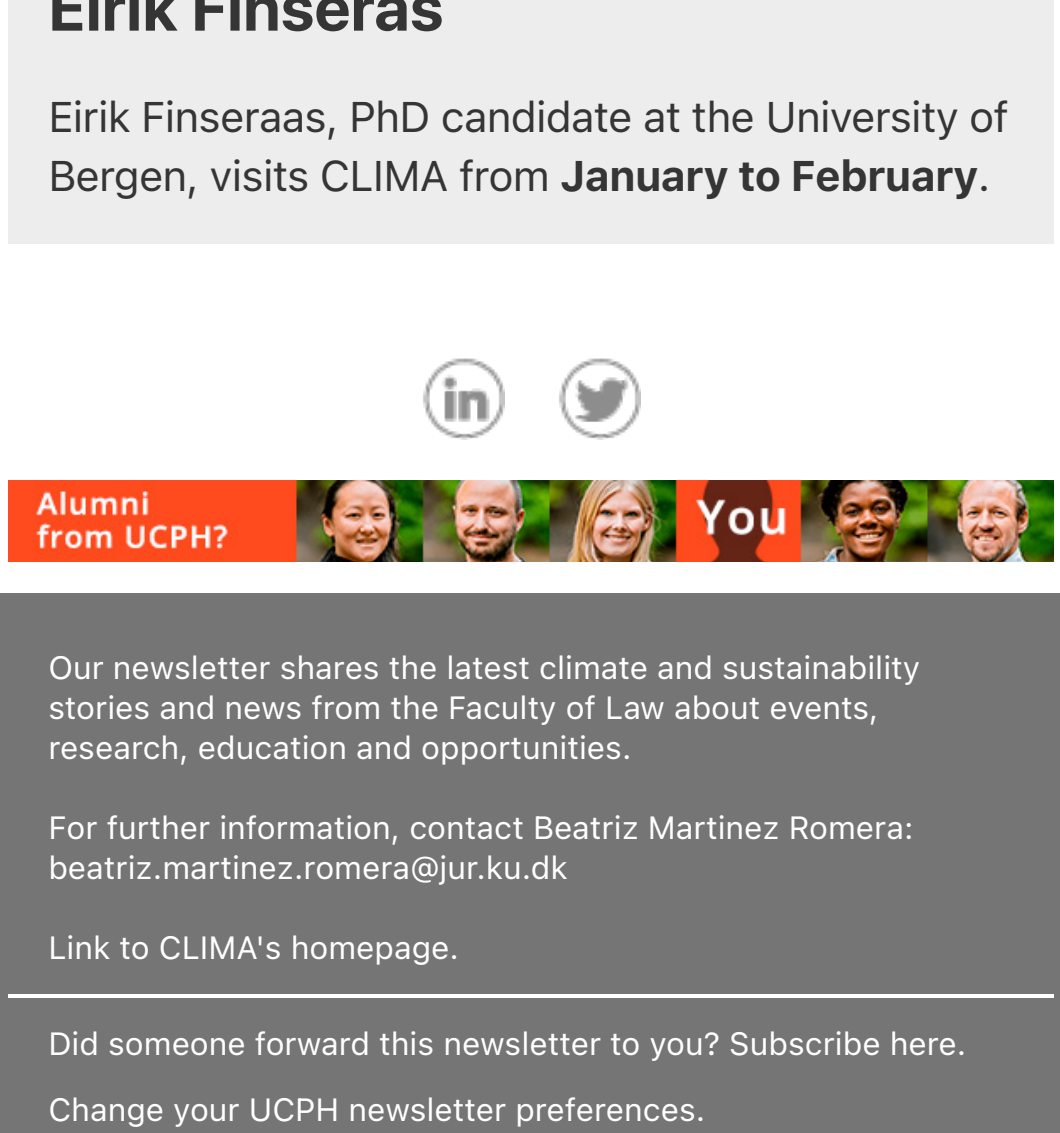

Register now to our 3-hour course on Carbon Capture and Storage for students and professionals on 1 February (11.00 - 15.00). The course offers an introduction to CCS technologies, their current state of deployment and the relevant law and policies adopted in the EU and comparative national jurisdictions, including Denmark, the Netherlands, Norway and the UK. Credits for lawyers are given for this course.

31-01-2024

Lunch Seminar: Transboundary Wake Effects Between Wind Farms in the North Sea

Join us on 31 January in person and online (12.00 - 12.45) for a seminar on the transboundary effects of offshore wind development and interstate cooperation with Eirik Finserås, University of Oslo. More info here.

07-02-2024

Lunch Seminar: Why is the IMO Failing to Address Climate Change in Maritime Shipping?

Interested in shipping? Join us on 7 February in person and online (12.00 - 13.00) for a discussion on the IMO role in the decarbonisation of maritime shipping with Jan Stockbruegger, University of Copenhagen. Register here to attend.

21-02-2024

Lunch Seminar: On Thin Ice - A Gendered Study of Human Rights in Relation to Climate Change in the Arctic

Join us on 21 February in person and online (12.00 - 13.00) for a seminar on climate change and Arctic indigenous women with Siff Lund Kjærgaard, University of Southern Denmark (SDU). More info here.

06-03-2024

Lunch Seminar: Deployment of Environmental Narratives for Strategic Gain

Join us on 6 March (12.00 - 13.00) for a discussion on purpose and positioning in the deployment of environmental narratives for strategic gain in the container shipping industry with Michele Acciaro, Copenhagen Business School. More info here.

Opportunities

Apply for a PhD at the Faculty of Law

Looking for a fully-funded PhD position in international law, with a climate or sustainability focus? Apply for a PhD at CLIMA through the open call of the Faculty of Law at the University of Copenhagen by 29 February.

Call for Abstracts – Shipping and Climate Change Conference

On the 27 and 28 May the conference International Law-Making: Actors in Shipping and Climate Change will take place in Copenhagen and online. Send your abstract by the 15 March to beatriz.martinez.romera@jur.ku.dk. Find the Call for Abstracts here.

Call for Abstracts – 14th Interdisciplinary Seminar

Present your research at the Ocean Special Edition of the Interdisciplinary Seminar on Climate, Energy and Sustainability on 25 April. The seminar is open to students and junior researchers working on the oceans and climate, energy or sustainability related topics. Send your abstract by 22 March to stella.ebbesmeyer@jur.ku.dk

The Green Corner

Are you an organization (law firm, industry, NGO, government) with an interest in the green transition? Join our latest partner Danske Bank and 15 other organisations at the Green Corner of the Faculty of Law.

For more information, contact beatriz.martinez.romera@jur.ku.dk.

ClimateDesk: Apply Now!

Are you a student looking for a supportive environment to write your master or bachelor thesis on climate change law? CLIMA offers a quiet space to write your thesis and plenty of opportunities to interact with the Centre's researchers. Apply now by sending an email to linnea.nordlander@jur.ku.dk.

Job opportunities in climate and sustainability For students and new graduates

Studentmedarbejder - Climate Change and Sustainability Service at EY. Application deadline: 15 January 2024. Click here for more information.

Jurastuderende til havvindenheden at Danish Energy Agency. Application deadline: 21 January 2024. Click here for more information.

Procurement Intern (Sustainable Supply Chains) at UNOPS. Application deadline: 21 January 2024. Click here for more information.

Graduate - Contract and Procurement at New Power Partners. Application deadline: 31 March 2024. Click here for more information.

Visiting scholars

Eirik Finserås

Eirik Finserås, PhD candidate at the University of Bergen, visits CLIMA from January to February.

Our newsletter shares the latest climate and sustainability stories and news from the Faculty of Law about events, research, education and opportunities.

For further information, contact Beatriz Martinez Romera: beatriz.martinez.romera@jur.ku.dk

Link to CLIMA's homepage.

Did someone forward this newsletter to you? Subscribe here.

Change your UCPH newsletter preferences.

Unsubscribe this UCPH newsletter.