

Nordic Network on Climate-Related Displacement and Mobility

Workshop Program

Thursday 16th of September 9:00-15:30 CEST Zoom

- 8:30 Tech check (optional)
- 9:00 Warm welcome, introduction and get-to-know
- 9:25 Setting the Scene: Discussion with Robin Bronen
Executive Director, Alaska Institute for Justice
Pre-recorded interview followed up by discussion in plenum
- 09:50 Break
- 10:00 Unpacking climate related displacement among indigenous communities in the Nordic region: what is shifting, and how are rights protected?
- Sámi People on the move in a changing climate: the need for a land use and land rights perspective
Robin Hocquet, SEI
Discussion in small groups and in plenum
- The impacts of energy transitions on the rights of indigenous peoples
Dorothee Cambou, University of Helsinki
- Do we have to escape for green energy? European green energy deals and impacts on indigenous lands
Reetta Toivanen, University of Helsinki
Discussion in small groups and in plenum
- 11:30 Seminar with Ben France-Hudson
Principal Analyst, Climate Adaptation Legislation Team, Ministry for the Environment of New Zealand
Pre-recorded seminar followed up by discussion in plenum
- 12:00 Lunch
- 12:45 A future agenda for planned relocation and managed retreat in the Nordic region: What are the challenges and how do current approaches need to evolve?
- Danish approaches to managed retreat
Kristoffer Albris, University of Copenhagen
- Managed retreat in Sweden
Gunnel Göransson, Swedish Geotechnical Institute
Discussion in small groups and in plenum
- Psychosocial response to risk mitigation measures in Iceland
Stephanie Matti, University of Iceland
Discussion in small groups and in plenum
- 14:15 Break
- 14:30 Future research
Connecting, ideating and sharing ideas for future research collaborations.
- 15:15 Wrap up and closing, and next steps
- 15:30 End of workshop

The workshop is funded by the Joint Committee for Nordic Research Councils in the Humanities and Social Sciences (NOS-HS) and is organized by the University of Copenhagen, in collaboration with the Raoul Wallenberg Institute, Åbo Akademi University and the University of Oslo. Find out more about the Nordic Network on Climate Related Displacement and Mobility on its website.